

NUTRIWAY HEALTH EXPERT PROGRAM

ARE YOU READY TO GROW YOUR NUTRIWAY BUSINESS?

By completion of this Nutriway Nutrition session, you will have developed the skills and knowledge to effectively use, recommend and sell Nutriway supplements.

You will gain an understanding of the specific functions of a range of Vitamins and Minerals in the body. Gain the confidence to connect and engage with customers by recognising and effectively explaining the NUTRIWAY point of difference.

By the conclusion of this unit IBOs should be able to

- Understand the functions of Vitamins and Minerals in the body
- Have an understanding of the difference between water and fat soluble vitamins
- Have an understanding of the difference between Fats, Protein and Carbohydrates
- Understand the importance of balance of macronutrients and micronutrients in a healthy diet
- Recognise specific Vitamin and Mineral deficiencies
- Communicate effectively and confidently to the customer how product attributes and benefits match their unique needs
- Address common customer questions and concerns
